

2014 Alleghany County Christmas Tree Association Membership Application

General Membership:

The purpose of the association is to develop and extend the interest in the production and marketing of quality Christmas trees in Alleghany County, North Carolina. The information you and other members provide here will be used to compile the NEW Alleghany Agriculture Directory, which will replace the Buyers' Guide. The Alleghany Agriculture Directory will be made available at the Alleghany Chamber of Commerce, local businesses and the Alleghany County Center of the North Carolina Cooperative Extension. The Alleghany Agriculture Directory will also be distributed at the Mountain Heritage Festival, the Dixie Classic Fair, local food events, regional and state commodity meetings, trainings and conferences. Listing and recognition in the Alleghany Agriculture Directory is one of the benefits of the membership and is restricted to current commodity groups in Alleghany County to their Association members. Your membership information will also be listed on the Association's website.

Associate Membership:

Associate Members must be an employee or family member of the Primary Member.

Allied Business Members:

If your company would like to place a business-card size ad in the 2014 Alleghany Agriculture Directory, please complete the Membership Section and submit a business-card size ad with your application.

Membership is for one year, beginning January 1st and may NOT be prorated. In order for your membership to be listed on the ACCTA website and in the NEW Alleghany Agriculture Directory you MUST complete and return this entire application by April 1, 2014. The Alleghany Agriculture Directory will be published in June, 2014 and will be used through 2015.
